The Tournament

Overview

A one-day event consisting of 75 minute rounds, with 100-point squadrons in standard dogfights.

Structure

This tournament will be using the standard Fantasy Flight tournament rules and format. Players will compete in 100-point dogfights with round structure determined as follows:

4-8 players - 3 Swiss rounds with no cut

9-16 players: 4 Swiss rounds with no cut

17-24 players: 4 Swiss rounds with a top 4 cut

25-40 players: 5 Swiss rounds with a top 4 cut

What you will need:

Your squad list including all relevant upgrades and pilot cards, preferably printed using one of the many available online squad builders.

- Your ships on their correct bases and stands
- Any other necessary components including, but not limited to, dice, damage card deck, maneuver templates, bomb tokens and action tokens
- Familiarity with changes up to and including FAQ version 4.4.1 (effective 22.01.18)

Scoring:

This tournament will use the standard Fantasy Flight scoring system with advancement based on number of tournament points, then margin of victory, then strength of schedule.

Awards:

Players will be awarded prizes for:

Best Pilot: first place in tournament

Runner Up: second place in tournament

Wooden Spoon: last place in tournament

Biggs Darklighter Memorial Prize: the player voted by other players as the best sport

Prizes are based on number of entrants and additional prizes may be added if numbers are above the minimum requirements.

Entry Details:

Entry tickets are $25, the ticket price is diverted to the sizable prize pool. Tickets are available at www.cherrybrooktechadpts.com. Please send a copy of your squad list to grant.michael.adams@gmail.com prior to the event.
